

TRAVEL FAR PAY NO FARE A BOOK CAN TAKE YOU ANYWHERE

2021 SUMMER READING PROGRAM

Please read carefully ~ it's a little different this year.

WHO: Infants to HS Seniors are eligible

WHAT: Participants earn prize packs for reading books

WHERE: You'll pick up books and prize packs at the Library; you'll read and record your books at home. Curbside service is available, if you prefer. All library materials must be returned in the drive-through book drop.

WHEN: Starts Saturday, May 22, 2021. Absolutely-positively-no-kidding last day to pick up prizes is Saturday, July 31, 2021.

WHY: To promote summer reading fun, family literacy activity, and development of family library habits.

HOW: New this year: Read and record your books at home, keeping track in your "passport". When you have read your 20 books and finished the program, you'll visit our website (see below) to order your prize pack and choose your prizes, shirt size, and pick up day and method. Your prize pack may be picked up curbside or in the Library. Please note the last day of the program is a few weeks earlier than usual.

As always: Read 20 books at your reading level to finish the program. For those reading chapter books of 100 pages or more, every 50 pages counts as a book. Graphic novels count as one book. Older children may read to younger children and the book counts for both. Reading aloud to multiple children? The book counts for each child. All books must be checked out of the Lebanon Public Library, including eBooks.
