Little Libby Kindness Day at Lebanon Public Library

Free Family Event Celebrates Kindness, Literacy, and Community Service on TogetherTuesday

Families and children are invited to participate in the Little Libby Kindness Day on TogetherTuesday, June 23, 2026, from 1:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m. at the Lebanon Public Library, 101 S. Broadway, Lebanon, Ohio.

Little Libby Kindness Day, in partnership with Be The People, GivingTuesdayLeb.com, and Little Libby Books, is part of the national TogetherTuesday movement, a day dedicated to bringing communities together through connection, service, and belonging.

Youth attending the event will receive a free Little Libby Kindness Journal (while supplies last), courtesy of Little Libby Books. The afternoon will feature story time, crafts, kindness activities, balloon animals, giveaways, and opportunities for families to explore ways they can make a positive difference in their community.

The Little Libby Kindness Project was inspired by the Little Libby's Big Idea children's book series by sisters Raye Kimberlin and Renee Forrester. The books are based on the life and legacy of their late aunt, Elizabeth Kimberlin, a pioneering community leader who founded Lebanon's first Black Girl Scout troop, helped establish the Lebanon Food Pantry, served as a leader with the American Cancer Society, and dedicated her career to public service as a civilian employee with the United States Air Force.

The Little Libby Kindness Project combines youth writing, storytelling, and hands-on service to inspire acts of kindness across generations. Through guided journal activities and community engagement, children are encouraged to reflect on kindness, generosity, empathy, and ways they can help others.

"Small acts of kindness can create lasting change," said Raye Kimberlin, co-author of the Little Libby's Big Idea series and founder of GivingTuesdayLeb.com. "We hope this project inspires children and families to discover the power they have to make their communities stronger through service and compassion."

Stacy Books, Director of the Lebanon Public Library shared, “The Lebanon Public Library is thrilled to partner with The Little Libby Kindness Project to help honor a Lebanon legend, Elizabeth Kimberlin, and bring children and families together at the intersection of literacy, books, and kindness. We are excited to help shine a spotlight on Little Libby and the incredible work Raye and Renee are doing to help honor their late aunt's legacy while providing a solid literary foundation for generations of future children.”

The event is free and open to the public. Families, caregivers, educators, and community members are encouraged to attend.
